Two Prisoners, One of Them Chauffeur of a Banker, Put Under Bail.
 Automobile speeders on the Central Park drives were to-day held for trial when arraigned before Magistrate Whitmore in Yorkville Court.
 Arthur Gorham, of No. 429 West Fifty-sixth street, chauffeur for Charles Joseph banker and broker, was arrested at the One Hundred and Tenth street driveway of the park by Policeman Steinert, who charged that the man was going at the rate of twenty miles an hour in a 40 horse-power car, carrying Joseph, Mrs. Joseph, three boys, three men and the chauffeur. The Jews protested against the arrest and went to the Arsenal station to furnish bond. When the case came up to-day Samuel Marx, a brother-in-law, appeared and said Mr. Joseph was confined to his bed by the shock. Marx gave $200 bail for Gorham when the man was held to Special Sessions for trial.

William C. Cleveland, a travelling salesman, living at No. 3 West Ninety-eighth street, was also arraigned and held to trial. He was arrested at the One Hundred and Eighth street drive.
